CURRENT SERIAL RECORDS

PUBLICATIONS ON NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGES

Publications of the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife on National Wildlife Refuges are both printed and duplicated. Printed publications are normally obtainable by purchase from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C. Publications are not sold by the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife.

The Bureau procures a small supply of its printed publications principally for official use and, while the supply lasts, it tries to send free copies to those who have definite need for them. Publications marked with an asterisk can be obtained only from the Superintendent of Documents by purchase; others may be sent free by the Bureau upon request accompanied by an explanation of the particular need. Several printed publications on refuges have been included in the Conservation in Action (CIA) Series, a few are Refuge Leaflets (RL), and one or two are in the Circular (Cir.) Series.

Most of the Refuge Leaflets are duplicated. They are used in connection with correspondence and at the refuges, presenting brief descriptions of individual refuges or groups of such areas, directions for visiting them, and recreational opportunities provided. Refuge Leaflets are being numbered from RL-1 to 100, and 501 to 600; Birdlists from RL-101 to 300; Mammal Lists from RL-301 to 400; and Historical Leaflets, Reprints, etc., from RL-401 to 500. Single copies for those refuges in which you are particularly interested are obtainable without cost from the Refuge, Regional, or Washington offices.

Several publications are of general interest to all refuges. These include:

List of National Wildlife Refuges, arranged by States, indicating the counties in which located, date of establishment, and principal species protected.

Address List of Refuge Managers, arranged by regions and States.

Duck Stamps and Wildlife Refuges, Circular 37, which reviews the history of refuges and outlines the future objectives.

The lists of refuge publications which follow are arranged alphabetically by refuges and numerically by series.

REFUGE BIRD LISTS

Birdlists in the form of 4-page leaflets have now been issued for most of the National Wildlife Refuges. Following a 1-page description of the area and seasonal behavior of birds thereon, a more or less standardized style has been followed in presenting status and abundance. These 4-page lists, prepared for ornithologists and students of bird distribution, have been issued in the Refuge Leaflet Series, beginning with RL-101. Those designated -R or -R-2 have had one or more revisions.
